

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

When I was a kid growing up in NYC we had many newspapers and radio stations- it made me the news junky i am. as I have aged into what some call senior citizenhood- I see fewer independent papers and TV news is all the same- no matter the station I turn to.

We, the American people, own the airwaves and you are to protect them for us- by encouraging diversity and competition- not discouraging same.

Let new generations of children grow up as I did, with a real variety of news- not balnd sameness.

Lynn Dorman, Ph.D.